District Attorney lauds success of "Project Las Vegas" to shut down illegal gambling in Coffee County

On May 8, 2024, a task force comprised of the Enterprise Police Department, the Coffee County Sheriff's Office and the 12th Judicial Circuit District Attorney's Office, conducted an operation in an effort to shut down illegal gambling operations at multiple locations in Enterprise.

The operation was named "Project Las Vegas."

Three businesses were found to be in possession of illegal gambling machines. The machines, along with money obtained illegally from the operation of these machines, were seized and Petitions for Forfeiture and Condemnation were filed in the Circuit Court of Coffee County in an effort to have these machines and money forfeited to the State of Alabama.

The State was represented by Assistant District Attorney Jeremy Mitchell in the preparation and presentation of these matters to the court. ADA Mitchell serves as the coordinator of the 12th Judicial Circuit Drug Task Force which is responsible for filing all civil asset forfeiture actions in Coffee and Pike counties.

After hearings on the Petitions for Forfeiture and Condemnation, the Circuit Court of Coffee County entered the following seizure and forfeiture orders:

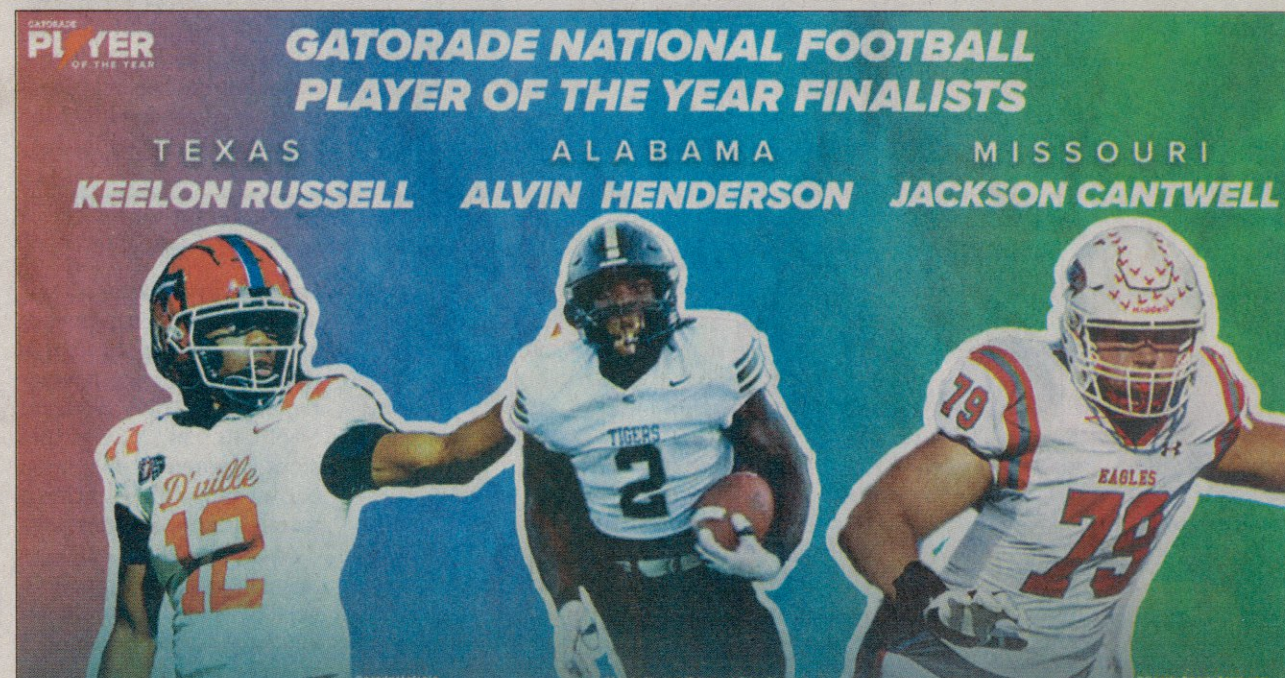

(1) From Las Flores Mexican Store, located at 1081F Highway 27, Enterprise: Four illegal gambling machines, along with equipment used to operate these machines, and a total of $3,596 in U.S. Currency. These items were forfeited to the State by consent of the owners of Las Flores Mexican Store on August 29, 2024.

(2) Tortilleria Chapin, located at 1035 Geneva Highway, Enterprise: Seven illegal gambling machines, along with equipment used to operate these machines, and a total of $2,286 in U.S. Currency. These items were forfeited to the State by consent of the owners of Tortilleria Chapin on August 29, 2024.

(3) El Paisano Supermarket #2, located at 913 Rucker Blvd. 44B, Enterprise: Four illegal gambling machines, along with equipment used to operate these machines, and a total of $10,013 in U.S. Currency. These items were forfeited to the State by Order of the Circuit Court after a trial was conducted on November 20, 2024.

"I appreciate the work of ADA Mitchell in bringing these matters to a close and securing the forfeiture of these illegal machines and all the money discovered during the operation," said District Attorney James Tarbox. "It was very important to me, Sheriff Scott Byrd, and Chief Michael Moore that a message be sent to the Enterprise and Coffee County community that we are not going to tolerate illegal gaming any longer. Project Las Vegas was a resounding success."

Alvin Henderson - senior running back from Elba High School - was named a finalist last week for the Gatorade National Player of the Year. Henderson is committed to play at Auburn University. This season, he broke the state record in career rushing yards. Turn to the "Sports Section" for more information.

During Coffee County Commission meeting

Coffee County Food Bank volunteers discuss success of food bank

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Volunteers with the Coffee County Food Bank addressed Coffee County Commissioners Monday morning, Dec. 9, during their regular meeting, and extended thanks for continuing to allow the use of the Farm Center facilities for the food bank.

Travis Whittaker said the Coffee County Food Bank has handed out 1.6 million pounds of food to citizens since 2018. He said that has served 19,600 families with food. Those who receive food from the food bank get 75-100 pounds of food each month.

"Last month, we were able to hand out over 7,200 pounds of meat also," Whittaker said.

He said the numbers show that Coffee County is helping a lot of folks with the food bank, and the Coffee

County Commission is a big part of that success.

Since the implementation of the Coffee County Food Bank, organizers said they also have been able to extend into other counties such as Geneva, Dale and Pike counties to start food banks there too.

Coffee County Sheriff Scott Byrd has helped at the food bank as well, and he said it is definitely something that will tug at one's heart strings. He encouraged anyone interested to consider volunteering to help.

Also, during the meeting, environmental services director Mike Thornton noted the landfill will be closed Wednesday, Dec. 25, for Christmas and Wednesday, Jan. 1, for New Year's Day. He said there would be no residential garbage pickup on those days.

Thornton said for the weeks of Christmas and New Year's Day, normal Wednesday pickups would move to Thursday and normal Thursday pickups would move to Friday.

Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister were out shopping last Saturday when Lou Lou saw something that blew her mind...a lady was shopping in her "elf" high-heel boots! Now, Lou Lou could not let this moment pass without saying something. Of course, Sister said she had already noticed the lady's shoes and was just hoping Lou Lou didn't see them!

Too bad! "Ohhhh! I gotta get a picture of those!" Lou Lou exclaimed as she and Sister walked behind the lady and her shopping partner.

Sister was ready to crawl under a shopping table. She just knew someone was going to witness Lou Lou using her phone to get a picture of the unusual shoes!

Fortunately, it was mission accomplished without any incident, but that didn't keep Lou Lou from discussing it.

"That woman's poor feet are going to be hurting before she gets done Christmas shopping," Lou Lou said.

Sister, in her down to earth manner, tried to explain to Lou Lou that some people enjoy "dressing up" their clothing with a nice pair of shoes, but Lou Lou wasn't buying it!

"Still...those cannot be comfortable for shopping!" Lou Lou continued.

Of course, Sister had reached her point of eyeroll with Lou Lou by now.

Comfortable or not...no one can say the lady was not in a "festive" holiday shopping mood! It takes courage to wear shoes like that out on a shopping adventure, Lou Lou contends.

As for her, however, she will stick with her tennis shoes for shopping. Lou Lou doesn't even like to wear heels with her Sunday-best wear! She definitely will not be caught out Christmas shopping in them!

Kudos to the other lady though...and, Lou Lou hopes her feet got a break sooner rather than later!!

Sister was just glad after the photo was made by Lou Lou that the two of them were headed in a different direction than the elf shoes...otherwise, there is no telling what Lou Lou would have done next, including striking up a conversation with the woman!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!!

Elba High School's standout football running back Alvin Henderson claimed yet another accolade last week for his historic high school football career. He was named the Gatorade 'Alabama' Player of the Year and a finalist for the Gatorade National Player of the Year! This honor puts Alvin in company with football greats such as Emmitt Smith and Peyton Manning...a tremendous feat for a young man from little 'ole Elba! Luck did not get this young man where he is today...no...it was hard work and dedication. Having watched him grow up playing the sport, we know he has earned the many awards he has received and continues to receive. All of Elba is proud of this young man, and we only hope for even better things to come for him! Congratulations on this latest honor!!

The rains earlier this week seemingly aided in large tree falling overnight Monday into Tuesday and creating a pretty large power outage across Elba. We were already snuggled in our bed and asleep when this happened and did not even realize our electricity had gone out! Our first knowledge of the incident was by opening up the Facebook app and seeing a post from the City of Elba letting folks know the electric crews were out working to restore power to all. Ours was already back on and working when we saw the post!! Great job by the Elba electric department on seeing to the needs of the citizens, even in the wee hours of the morning.

Help us wish our sister, Latisha, a very happy birthday this Friday, Dec. 13th! When it comes to sisters, we got the luck of the draw with Latisha, and we hope she has the best birthday ever this Friday -- we'll keep the number under wraps for now as we will be in enough trouble already for brining attention to her :) Happy Birthday!

Alabama Farmers Federation elects board of directors

written by Tanner Hood

A resounding send-off for longtime leaders of the Alabama Farmers Federation led to an exciting welcome for two new vice presidents during the organization's annual meeting Dec. 8-9 in Montgomery.

Morgan County's Mark Byrd was elected to his first two-year term as North Area vice president, replacing Rex Vaughn of Madison County. Dale County's Chris Carroll was elected Southeast Area vice president, replacing Houston County's George Jeffcoat. Vaughn and Jeffcoat served maximum terms.

A poultry and row crop farmer, Byrd's North Area covers Blount, Cherokee, Colbert, Cullman, DeKalb, Etowah, Franklin, Jackson, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Limestone, Madison, Marion, Marshall, Morgan and Winston counties.

In his new role, poultry, cattle and row crop producer Carroll will cover Barbour, Bullock, Chambers, Coffee, Coosa, Covington, Crenshaw, Dale, Elmore, Geneva, Henry, Houston, Lee, Macon, Pike, Russell and Tallapoosa counties.

Another all-important order of business took place during the nearly 500-delegate strong business session. Jimmy Parnell was unanimously elected to his seventh term as Federation president.

"It seems like two or three weeks ago we started down this journey," Parnell said. "We have accomplished so much. We've built a tremendous team. I love getting up to go to work. It's really not work when you love what you do. The federation is as strong today as, I think, we've ever been. I'm just excited about our future."

As Federation president, Parnell also leads affiliate company Alfa Insurance.

Additionally, four district directors were selected to three-year terms.

District 1 delegates reelected Walker County's Dorman Grace — a poultry, cattle and row crop farmer — to his second term. District 1 includes Colbert, Franklin, Lauderdale, Lawrence, Marion and Walker counties.

Darrell Lee of Winston County was elected to serve District 4, replacing Cullman County's Steve Lake. District 4 consists of Blount, Cullman, Marshall and Winston counties. Lee raises cattle and hay.

Serving District 7 is newly elected director Mahlon Richburg of Lee County, a cattle and hay producer. Richburg replaces Elmore County's Joe Lambrecht. District 7 includes Chambers, Coosa, Elmore, Lee, Macon, Russell and Tallapoosa counties.

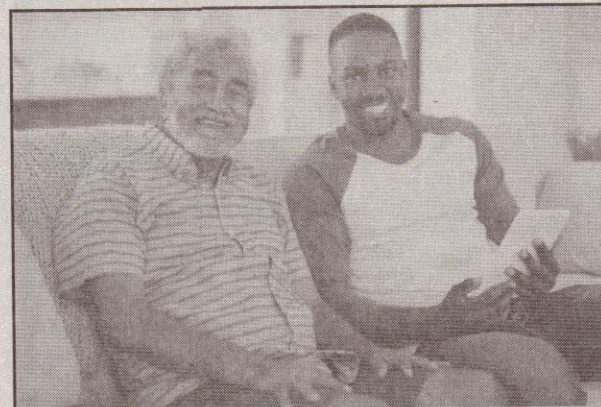

Tripp Horne was reelected to a second term as District 10 director. The Barbour County poultry and cattle farmer represents Barbour, Bullock, Coffee, Covington, Crenshaw and Pike counties.

Also elected to one-year, ex-officio terms on the state board were State Women's Leadership Committee Chair Rachel Chastain of Talladega County and State Young Farmers Committee Chair Denzil Dees of Sumter County.

How to Plan for Seasonal Grief

If you've ever lost a loved one, you know grief can come in cycles. Certain events - your loved one's birthday, an anniversary, a favorite holiday; a certain time of the year - can be all it takes to unleash a huge wave of grief.

You can't always stop this wave from coming; if you know that certain seasons are hard on you, though, you can prepare yourself to cope.

One suggestion is to lean into your memories; rather than trying to suppress them, actively seek to honor and share them. For example, if your family is having a big holiday gathering, make your deceased loved one's favorite dish for everyone to share, and invite loved ones to voice favorite memories.

Be proactive in taking care of yourself, physically and emotionally. Take some time to get outside and walk each day. Sunlight and fresh air can be good mood boosters. And, be sure to eat and sleep properly.

Express your feelings of intensified grief, even if it's just by writing them down in a journal.

More than anything, avoid isolating yourself. Seek out the close friends and loved ones in whom you can confide. Don't shy away from family gatherings, even if you know they will bring some sadness. Try to stay close to the people you love, and the people you know will support and encourage you.

Finally, consider creating some kind of a memory box or memento with which you can honor your lost loved one - remembering their life and legacy even in a busy time of the year.

Grief can be very cyclical, and some dates on the calendar may fill you with apprehension - but with these steps, you can meet that apprehension head-on.

What does the Bible say about...

God's Provision?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his descendants begging bread" (Psalm 37:25).

"Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads us with benefits" (Psalm 68:19).

"Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and try me now in this, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour out for you such blessing that there will not be room enough to receive it" (Malachi 3:10).

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you" (Matthew 6:33).

"And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:19).

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning" (James 1:17).

The above scriptures are samples that show us that God provides for us. God cares for us to the extent that "the very hairs of your head are all numbered" (Matthew 10:20), and He "makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust" (Matthew 5:45). God gives to all these material blessings in abundance, but His spiritual blessings are for those who are in Christ (Ephesians

1:3). Since we have an eternal soul, and are not going to live forever on this earth, we need to make provisions for the future when this life is over. The Bible states "And as it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment" (Hebrews 9:27), and that Jesus came "that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Jesus wants us to have the best life here, and eternal life in that wonderful place called heaven when this life ends.

To be forgiven of our sins and enjoy all spiritual blessings we must be in Christ. The Bible teaches that the only way to get in Christ is by being "baptized into Christ" (Romans 6:3), and baptism must be preceded by faith, repentance, and confession of our faith. God loves us and cares for us to the extent that He gave His Son to die for us (John 3:16).

In Matthew 6, Jesus shows what is important in our lives. We must choose the right master. We must choose the right priorities. And when we do, Jesus tells us not to worry because as God cares for the birds and lilies He will also take care of us. Jesus said, "Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith" (Matthew 6:30).

Waiting for Christmas

Do you remember how hard it was to wait for Christmas when you were a child? We are reminded of our own long-ago childhood every year as we watch the little ones in our families use a calendar to count down the days to December 25.

A certain company specializes in calendars for this purpose and claims to have 300 varieties in stock. For example, the company sells a chocolate calendar with a piece of chocolate behind the window for each day. Then, there are religious calendars with scripture verses behind each window. Those with a more secular orientation have Santa, snowmen, winter scenes, or Victorian-era art as the surprise each day. Admittedly, the last one probably would not be of much interest to the average child! Jesus concluded His parable about the unjust judge by making a point about how we should await His return. Some Christians create "end times calendars" with "windows" that feature clues as to how close we are to the second coming. The Lord doesn't want us to waste time trying to determine the exact timing of His return. He's more interested in what we do and how we pray during that interim, right? -C.R.B.

Our youngest grandson Cannon was back for a weekend visit and that meant another 'Bluey' marathon on television and trying to keep up with the dozens of toys he pulled out of his toy chest and spread all over the house. It was non-stop action, as always, but I will admit he keeps us young just trying to keep up with him!

For what it is worth....

 The high school basketball season will tip off this week for the Elba Tigers and Lady Tigers and even though they are getting off to a late start it looks like an exciting season ahead for both the teams. The Tigers will be coached by Harry Griffin and Chance Goosby, and on paper appear to be loaded for a run at an area title, led by the inside power of 6-6 Emmanuel Cooks, 6-5 Trai Davis, 6-3 Jacob Watkins and 6-3 Cayden Adkins, while the Lady Tigers, coached by Stonewall Smith and Dexter Watkins, will have back four starters off last year's state tournament team in seniors Ana Caldwell, Alayvia Stinson and A'lyric Whitfield, as well as freshman NyAsia McCollough. Both teams may struggle a little early in the season as they settle in, but as the season rolls along look for both teams to make a lot of noise.

 The high school basketball season has been underway for a couple of weeks and it is already beginning to come clear what the season may hold for its fans. On the boys side, Brantley should be as good as ever and be an area title contender, while New Brockton should only get better and better as the season progresses, Kinston should be a team to keep an eye on and has the talent to beat any team on any given night, and Zion Chapel should be very competitive and when it hits from behind the arc could pull off some surprises. Over with the girls, Kinston is off to a fast start and may be the surprise team in this part of the state, New Brockton s looking for one of its best years ever and appears loaded with talent, Brantley should be much improved and should once again be a team to watch, and Zion Chapel is also much improved and will out up a fight every time it takes the court.

 With Alvin Henderson set to play in the upcoming Alabama-Mississippi All-Star game and the Navy All-American game, and Cayden Adkins to play in the Alabama North-South All-Star game it may be a while before we put the football season to bed, but since the playoffs are now in the books I will take a quick look back at a few things I noticed while looking through the Alabama High School Football Historical Society site over the weekend. The site listed its final power rankings of the season based on strength of schedule and other factors, and in Class 1A the top two teams were state champ Wadley at number one and Elba at number two, with area teams Brantley coming in a number twenty and Kinston at thirty-nine. In Class 2A, state champ Reeltown was atop the list, followed by Highland Home in second, with Zion Chapel listed at number thirty-five. In Class 3A, state champ Mars Hill was atop the list followed by runner-up Houston Academy; in Class 4A, state champ Jackson was number one followed by West Morgan at number two, with New Brockton coming in at number fifty-five; in Class 5A, it was state champ Montgomery Catholic atop the list followed by Moody; in Class 6A, it was state champ Parker atop the list followed by Saraland; and, in Class 7A, it was Thompson number one and Auburn at number two.

In the list of team scoring, Elba was atop the list with a total of 723 points scored, followed by Wadley with 703 and Jackson with 699, while over on defense, Highland Home allowed only 77 points, followed by Vigor with 83 and Coosa Central with 86.

A few others notes of interest, at least to me, was the fact Thompson won its fifth 7A title in the last six years and in the last eight years has compiled a record of 95-13; Saraland has been a perennial power and has posted an 89-12 record the last six years, but has only one state title to show for it; Montgomery Catholic has won back-to-back state titles and over the last six years has a 79-6 record; Jackson won its first state title in 13 years and outscored its opponents 699-188 in the process; Mars Hill won its third state title in the last seven years and in that span has posted an 85-13 record; Reeltown won its first state title in 15 years after being runners-up in 2019 and 2023; and, Wadley won its first state title ever and in the process outscored its victims 703-202.

 In closing, Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator hit on all seven of his playoff picks last week to put the wraps on another successful season. The local guesspert is one of only a few prep pickers left across the state, and no doubt is one of the best. Now to try and get him to come back next season to once again share his wisdom and give area fans something to talk about each week.

Henderson and Adkins take next step

Elba 'dynamic duo' sign scholarships

A pair of Elba Tiger football standouts took center stage last Wednesday morning at Elba High as Alvin Henderson and Cayden Adkins both signed scholarships to continue their careers at the college level.

Henderson, Alabama's all-time rushing leader, signed with Auburn, while Adkins, a two-time all-state linebacker, inked with Georgia State, in Atlanta. The dynamic duo helped lead Elba to 35 wins over the past three seasons, and two appearances in the state semifinals.

"It has been a long process," said Henderson, the owner of over a dozen AHSAA individual records during his illustrious career. "I have been blessed to be able to play my entire career at Elba High and now to get the chance to continue my career as an Auburn Tiger. I had a number of schools that offered scholarships over the past couple of years, but in the end I just felt like Auburn was the best fit. I liked the scheme they are running on offense and feel like they have some great coaches in Coach Freeze and Coach Nix (running back coach), and it just feels like a family up there every time they turn on the lights at the stadium."

An early enrollee, Henderson added, "When I get up there in a few weeks I am going to bring with me an attitude to work hard, and while I know it will be a grind, I am going up there to work and prove my worth. The coaches have told me they want me to come in and play early, and while I know nothing will be given to me and nothing will come easy, I am prepared to get there, out in the hard work and prove myself. Coach Freeze and his staff are building something special up at Auburn and I believe in everything they are doing and I just believe there will be a change coming."

Henderson named Alabama 'Gatorade Player of the Year'

The awards and accolades continued to roll in for Elba Tiger football standout Alvin Henderson last week when he was named the 'Gatorade Football Player of the Year' in Alabama and chosen as one of three finalists for the player of the year.

Other finalists include Keelon Russell, a quarterback from Duncanville, Texas, that signed with Alabama, and Jackson Cantwell, a left tackle from Nixa, Missouri, ranked number one in the 2026 recruiting class.

Henderson, an Auburn signee, was a three-year starter at running back for the Tigers and in his senior season became the all-time career rushing leader in the Alabama High School year placed fourth in the Mr. Football balloting. He is ranked as the fifth best running back in the nation by 247Sports and the one-hundred and fourth overall player. He holds numerous state records, including single and career rushing records, rushing for 10,923 yards in his career, and also is near the top in scoring with 202 career touchdowns. In his 55 high school games, Henderson rushed for over 100 yards in a total of forty-six games.

Adkins, a force at linebacker, as well as on offense as a quarterback and fullback, reported he felt he made the right decision on choosing Georgia State.

"It just feel awesome," stated Adkins. "It is truly a blessing and I thank God, all my coaches and everybody that supported me throughout my career. The coaches at Georgia State have been good to me and they have been with me through the entire process. Their defensive line coach offered me a scholarship when he was an assistant at Eastern Kentucky and always said if he ever went anywhere else he would take me with him. I really didn't know what he meant, but when he went to Georgia State he let me know he wanted me. I feel he has been real up front with me all the way. They have talked about a possible fullback package, but I was recruited as a linebacker, and will do whatever they want me to do to best help the team be successful."

In 34 games at Elba, Adkins recorded 226 solo tackles and 166 assists, including 89 tackles for a loss, 20 quarterback sacks, two interceptions and caused seven fumbles. As a senior, Adkins rushed for 1,388 yards and 25 touchdowns, in his lone season as a quarterback in the Tigers run-heavy offensive attack.

"The main thing I hope people realize about these two young men is not really related to the game of football, but to the game of life and who they are as people," said Elba Tiger head coach Marc Sieving. "Cayden is a tireless worker that drops by the coach's office every day just to say 'Hi' and always has a smile on his face. He is always willing to help others, not just the other football players, but all the students here at school. The thing I love most about him is not the plays he makes for us on the football field, but the person he is every day. I can say the same thing about Alvin. It has been a real honor to watch him grow up over the past couple of years. He is a hard worker and used hard work and his God-given talent to accomplish his goals. He too is much more than just a football player - he is a better person."

ALVIN HENDERSON continued to add to his football honors last week by being named the 'Gatorade Player of the Year' in Alabama.

Kinston k.o.'s Rebels 52-49

The Kinston Bulldogs pulled ahead early in the fourth quarter and held on late to claim an exciting 52-49 road win over the Zion Chapel Rebels, Thursday night at the Rebel gym.

Zion Chapel jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a three-pointer by Joseph LeGear, but watched the Bulldogs answer quickly behind the play of Tucker Marler and Carter Hughes to open up a 10-6 lead, and after the Bulldogs Zavory Stanley and the Rebels LeGear swapped three-pointers in the closing minute it was Kinston that carried a 13-9 lead into quarter number two.

Kinston upped its lead to 15-11 early in the second quarter on a driving lay-up by Jon Simmons and appeared ready to take command. However, Zion Chapel rallied behind the scoring punch of Joseph LeGear and Brodie Stinson and caught the Bulldogs at 20-20 with 2:28 left in the quarter on a basket by Carson Dobbs. Kinston scored late on a three-pointer by Simmons and a free-throw by Hughes, and at the half carried a 26-22 lead into the locker room.

The Rebels Brodie Stinson scored the first two baskets of the third quarter to pull Zion Chapel even on the scoreboard, and while the Bulldogs did open up s 31-27 lead with 3:17 left in the stanza, the Rebels kept battling and pulled within 37-36 heading into the fourth quarter after a late three-pointer by Joh Foster Hamm.

Zion Chapel grabbed a 39-37 lead early in the fourth quarter on a three-point play by Stinson and the Rebels maintained their slim lead until the Bulldogs Joshua Hart connected on a three-pointer with 4:04 remaining to put Kinston on top 43-41. The Rebels closed to within 45-44 with 3:22 left on a three-pointer by Joseph LeGear and was within 50-49 with 11-seconds left after a three-pointer by Brodie Stinson, but Kinston's Colby Tew scored with 5-seconds left and a last-second shot by the Rebels hit the rim and bounced off as the Bulldogs survived with the 52-49 road win.

Zavory Stanley scored 18 points and Jon Simmons added 15 to lead the Bulldogs, while Joseph LeGear led the Rebels with 17 points and Brodie Stinson added 16.

Lady Bulldogs remain on roll

The Kinston Lady Bulldogs remained on an early-season roll and improved their record to 9-0 with a big 50-19 road win over the Zion Chapel Lady Rebels.

Kinston came out ready to take command and did just that as Allyx Williamson and Lauren Norris combined for 11 first quarter points as the Lady Bulldogs raced out to a 17-0 lead with 57-seconds remaining in the quarter. Williamson added three points early in the second quarter and Maggie Martin added a pair of baskets to push the Kinston lead to 25-2 with 6:03 still left in the quarter, and while Zion Chapel's Shea Wambles heated up late in the half the Lady Rebels failed to cut into the deficit and at intermission trailed 35-8.

Allyx Williamson scored the first two baskets of the third quarter to up the Kinston lead to 39-8, and while the pace slowed on the offensive end of the court when the Lady Bulldogs began to rest their starters, Kinston never lost command and carried a 46-14 advantage into the fourth quarter. Zion Chapel's Shea Wambles and Maggie Downing combined for the first five points of the fourth quarter to pump life into the Lady Rebels. However, the Lady Bulldogs refused to allow another basket over the final seven minutes of the game and Kinston's Lilli Sumblin added two baskets to give the Lady Bulldogs the 50-19 win.

Allyx Williamson scored 25 points to lead the Lady Bulldogs, while Maggie Martin added 10 and Lauren Norris scored 8. Shea Wambles led the Lady Rebels with 12 points.
